MUSIC IS HIS LIFE

A TRIBUTE TO CANTOR IVOR LICHTERMAN

ABOUT CANTOR LICHTERMAN

Born and raised in South Africa, Cantor Ivor Lichterman was nurtured for the Cantorate by his late father, Cantor Jakub Lichterman. Upon his immigration to the United States in 1976, Cantor Lichterman pursued graduate Judaic studies at Yeshiva University and served for many years in synagogues on the East coast. He has served Congregation Anshei Israel since 1991. A cum laude graduate in Judaic Studies from the University of Cape Town, Cantor has diplomas in music, commercial art, calligraphy, Hebrew teaching and Brit Milah.

Cantor Lichterman was honored by the Jewish Theological Seminary by being inducted as an Honorary Fellow of their Cantorial School in recognition of his contributions to the Jewish People. He has made numerous concert appearances in synagogues throughout the world, including a remarkable trip to Warsaw, Poland, with his mother and brother, and he has generously contributed his time to every Jewish organization in Tucson.

A talented photographer, he has photographed synagogues in 14 countries, an achievement he is documenting for publication. He is married to Jan and they have two sons, Mayron and Ari, and a daughter, Jackie.
